

Regional Community

Active Member

The role of Regional Community Active Member exists to proactively support the Regional Community Team by attending regular meetings and be proactive in engaging and informing our members of the impacts and outcomes on a local level as well as encouraging further engagement with Midcounties Co-op and the local Regional Community.

THE ROLE

To engage with a designated area, identified by the Society, within the 'Regional Communities' model:

Actively support the Regional Community Team through attendance of regular meetings and or online calls

Encourage members to attend events/fundraisers/volunteer in the local area

Share the excellent work of the Regional Community within their own networks, other community groups and members

Maximize membership through actively sharing the benefits of being a Midcounties member and encouraging sign-ups

Actively promote the Your Coop Community Fund and share the benefits of this funding opportunity

To act as a representative of the Regional Community at local events as required
