

Regional Community Board Representative

As a Board representative you would join your local Regional Community Steering Group and help shape our community engagement activity. This would be carried out by attending meetings throughout the year to influence the community activities taking place in the area, getting involved in local community events, and being an ambassador of our Regional Community programme in your community.

THE ROLE

To advocate our Regional Community programme in your local community

Actively support the Regional Community Team through attendance of regular meetings and or online calls

Share the excellent work the group are doing with other local members, community groups and at Board meetings as appropriate

Encourage members to attend events/fundraisers/volunteer in the local area

Maximise membership through actively sharing the benefits of being a Midcounties member and encouraging sign-ups

Actively promote the Your Co-op Community Fund and share the benefits of this funding opportunity

Engage with beneficiaries of community funding in the Regional Community area, to learn more about how the funds have helped them and the impacts made
